1.0 Purpose

CCS has established a credit card program to improve the efficiency, flexibility, and convenience related to purchasing goods, services, and travel and to reduce transaction processing costs. Purchase cards (P-Cards) and Travel cards (T-Cards) are to be used within the same statutes, rules, policies, and procedures as purchases by any other means of payment.

2.0 Limitations and Requirements

2.1 Institutions of higher education are granted the independent authority to the purchase goods and services they require. [RCW 28B.10.029]

2.2 State institutions are limited to purchasing goods, equipment, supplies and routine services that are properly authorized and for official business use only.

2.3 The Purchasing Department has the exclusive authority to create a binding financial commitment to a supplier. See [Administrative Procedure 1.40.01-A Delegation of Authority]

2.4 The Purchasing Department manages and directs the operation of various credit card programs in the fulfillment of its duties.

2.4.1 CCS employees may be delegated limited purchasing authority within the proper parameters of such credit card programs. [OFM SAAM 45.10.70.c]

2.4.2 Such delegated limited purchasing authority conforms to the limitations of [Administrative Procedure 1.40.01-A Delegation of Authority] and [RCW 43.193.1906]

3.0 Credit Card Program

CCS P-Card and T-Card program is authorized by [RCW 43.19.185] and [OFM SAAM 45.10.20].

3.1 Only CCS employees may use its credit card system. Volunteers, students not employed by CCS, contractors or other outside parties may not use the card system.

3.2 P-Cards and T-Cards may be issued to staff upon request of their administrator. The administrator may request transaction limits for the cards within her/his signature authority and the current Washington State direct buy limit as published in the [Washington State Purchasing Manual], section 6.1.

3.3 All employees must undergo training in proper use of the credit card systems and execute a cardholder agreement before they are authorized to make purchases using them. [OFM SAAM 45.10.60]

3.3.1 The Purchasing Department provides training programs for the proper use of the credit card system and publishes the current procedures and regulations on its web page [Credit Card Program].

3.3.2 Employees are required to maintain knowledge of current rules, processes and regulations through periodic review of information posted on the [Credit Card Program] web page.
4.0 Credit Card Custodian

4.1 The administrator requesting the issuance of a credit card shall designate a card custodian and appoint the employee(s) who will review and process the daily transactions in the bank’s online processing system.

4.2 Custodians of credit cards must maintain a contemporaneous log of transactions as they are being made.

4.2.1 At the end of each monthly accounting cycle, custodians must:
   4.2.1.1 Reconcile the bank card monthly statement with the log sheets and attach detailed receipts for all transactions.
   4.2.1.2 Submit the log sheet to the administrator for approval and signature.
   4.2.1.3 Forward the documents to the Purchasing Department by the tenth day of the following month. OFM SAAM 45.10.70.e

4.2.2 T-Card receipts must be attached to appropriate Travel Prior Approval (TPA) form and forwarded to the travel desk for processing; only the log sheet and monthly statement is forwarded to the Purchasing Department after the administrator’s approval and signature.

4.3 Credit cards may be issued in an individual’s name or in the name of a department to be shared among multiple users.

4.3.1 Administrators are encouraged wherever possible to request cards in individual’s names instead of department names, as there is no fraud loss protection provided for department named cards.

4.3.2 Any fraud losses encountered in such circumstances will be deducted from rebates to the campus.

5.0 Credit Card Program Violations

The Purchasing Department has the authority to suspend or terminate an employee’s use of CCS credit cards for the following causes:

5.1 Splitting, segmenting or stringing multiple orders in an attempt to circumvent the established procurement limits on a P-Card or the obligation to conduct a competitive bid OFM SAAM 45.10.50;

5.2 Failure to obtain and submit itemized receipts for transactions OFM SAAM 45.10.70.f;

5.3 Failure to process charges in a timely manner within the bank’s online credit card system OFM SAAM 45.10.70.f;

5.4 Failure to maintain and submit credit card log sheets and monthly statements in a timely manner OFM SAAM 45.20.30;

5.5 The improper use of a P-Card for prohibited transactions that involve cash, gifts, alcohol, personal use, or purchases from an employee’s immediate family. OFM SAAM 45.10.50
6.0  Purchasing Procedure Violations

Purchases are to be made consistent with CCS and state procurement policies and procedures at all times. When an employee violates proper purchasing procedures, it becomes his/her personal responsibility to pay for the item or service. If the individual cannot, or will not, pay for the item or service, it is the employee’s responsibility to:

6.1  Contact the vendor and make arrangements to return the product, or cancel the service.

6.2  The transaction will not be considered a valid CCS purchase, and CCS will not be responsible for payment.

6.3  The employee may be subject to further disciplinary action.
