PREAMBLE

For the purpose of assisting college students in creating the lives they desire, by helping students discover their passion and purpose through giving them the support and tools to achieve their goals, in order to build leaders who make a better world – The National Society of Leadership and Success, Sigma Alpha Pi has been founded.

ARTICLE I

NAME

The official name of this organization shall be, The National Society of Leadership and Success, Sigma Alpha Pi, hereinafter referred to as “the NSLS”.

ARTICLE II

PURPOSE STATEMENT

The organization has been established to create a support group that will help college students achieve their goals and better their lives, in the process building leaders who make a better world.

ARTICLE III

COMPLIANCE STATEMENT

Upon approval by the Dean of Student Services, the NSLS shall be a registered student organization at Spokane Community College Campus. The NSLS shall comply with all local, state and federal laws, as well as all Spokane Community College Campus regulations, policies, and procedures. Such compliance includes but is not limited to the Campus’s regulations related to Non-Discrimination, Hazing, Commercial Activity, and Student Leader Eligibility.

ARTICLE IV

NON-DISCRIMINATION

The NSLS agrees to comply with Spokane Community College Campus’s Non-Discrimination Policy stated below.

Community Colleges of Spokane promotes collegiality based on a belief in human rights and the dignity of each individual. Students shall be provided an environment free from any form of discrimination or harassment directed to any individual or group on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, creed, age, marital status, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, or veteran status that is severe, pervasive or persistent, and objectively offensive so as to substantially disrupt or undermine a person’s ability to participate in or to receive benefits, services or opportunities of CCS.

Any student who believes he/she has been subject to harassment/discrimination has the right to file a complaint that will include a written statement describing the alleged harassment/discrimination. Any supervisor or administrator is authorized to accept or take a complaint.

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: Membership in the NSLS shall be open to invited and nominated students, based on criteria outlined by chapter advisor approval in compliance with all campus regulations, who can benefit from the program at a chapter's host institution.

Section 2: A member shall be defined as any student who has paid their National dues. An inducted member shall be defined as any student who has paid their National dues and has attended an Orientation meeting, at least three (3) Speaker Events, three (3) Success Networking Team meetings, completed the NSLS's Leadership Training Day event, and is in good standing with the local chapter and institution.

Section 3: A Presidential Member is a member complying with the above Section 2 and also meets the criteria defined for this recognition by achieving a cumulative G.P.A. of 3.3 or higher.

Section 4: An Attendee is defined as any person who has attended an Orientation meeting or Speaker Event but has not paid National dues or committed to completing all that is listed in Article IV, Section 2 regarding the achievement of induction into the NSLS.

ARTICLE V

NATIONAL CHAPTER DUES

Section 1: National dues shall be paid to The National Society of Leadership and Success in order to be considered a member.

- National dues for the 2019--2020 academic year are a one-time fee of $95 per student.
- Five dollars ($5) from each student's paid National dues and an additional ($5) after a student completes their steps is credited back to the chapter in an account controlled by the chapter advisor(s) and Chapter Support Managers.
- National dues are subject to change.

Section 2: Dues shall be collected from each prospective member by one of the following ways:

- Prospective members may apply and pay directly online via the NSLS website (www.nsls.org).
- Prospective members may apply and pay by printing out the application form from the NSLS website, completing the form and sending it with a check for eighty-five dollars ($95) made out to "The National Society of Leadership and Success" to the National Office at 1 Evertrust Plaza Suite 101, Jersey City, NJ, 07302 via postal carrier.

Section 3: On successful registration and payment of such dues, participants are considered members until all steps to induction listed in Article IV, Section 2 have been completed at which time they become inducted members.

ARTICLE VI

Section 6: Discipline/Dismissal of Officers and Members:

Grounds for Discipline

- Absences – three (3) or more unexcused absences per academic term from regularly scheduled meetings/events of the NSLS where there was an original commitment to be there (relevant only for Executive Board members and Committee Chairs).

- Violation of the Constitution, Bylaws, or Standing Rules of the NSLS.
- Actions detrimental to the operation and/or reputation* of the NSLS.

Reputation – This includes, but is not limited to, possessing/exhibiting a negative attitude towards the Chapter or the Executive Board that poses a threat to the fluency of meetings; speaking negatively to harm The NSLS or Chapter; and/or interrupting events/meeting with unwarranted, unproductive remarks; etc.*

Discipline Procedures

- Any member of the NSLS may file a grievance with the Advisor(s), the Executive Board, and/or Chapter Support Manager.
- The Advisor(s), Executive Board, and Chapter Support Manager will review the grievance and make recommendations for sanctions (as described in Part C below). Any such sanction must be approved by a two-thirds majority of the Executive Board, Advisor, or Chapter Support Manager. In the event the matter is extremely sensitive, it should be handled through the host institution's judicial system (where the host institution's policies supersede this Constitution).
- An appeal may be made to the Chapter Support Manager if it is a matter dealing with organizational expectations and/or operations. In the event that the matter is handled by the host institution's judicial system, refer to the host institution's policies and procedures for an appeal.

Sanctions

- Written warning – the member will receive a written warning signed by the Advisor(s), President, or Chapter Support Manager which will remain on file for the remainder of the academic year. If there are no further violations, the warning will be destroyed.
- Impeachment – Executive Officers and Chairpersons can be removed from office if two written warnings have not corrected the issue (except in extreme cases where fewer warnings may be deemed sufficient by the Advisor or Chapter Support Manager). The member in question shall be notified of the intended procedure in writing with the statement of grievances and the date, time, and location.
- Dismissal – Any member can be dismissed if there are repeated violations or if the Advisor(s), host Campus, or Chapter Support Manager deems the matter inappropriate, with approval from the Chapter Support Manager or through impeachment by the Eboard.

Section 7: Governing rules of the NSLS:

- The NSLS shall be empowered to add local bylaws, which define purpose, structure, requirements for holding office, and the function of its components in greater detail so long as the bylaws do not conflict with the Constitution.
- The NSLS shall be empowered to enact Standing Rules, which shall define and give purpose to meetings, operations, responsibilities, and expectations of its Executive Officers, Chairs, or Committee Team Members as long as they do not conflict with the Constitution.
- The Constitution, bylaws, and Standing Rules are the governing policies and principles of the NSLS.
- Current copies of the local chapter's bylaws and Standing Rules should be on file with the Chapter Support Manager and at the host institution.

ARTICLE VII

Meetings

Section 1: All general body meetings and speaker broadcast events shall be open to all students, faculty, and administration of the host institution, as well as any interested party pursuant to all Federal and State open meeting acts.

- Upcoming speaker broadcast event dates shall be defined by the Chapter Support Manager and will be provided to the local chapters.
- Additional general body meetings may be held at the request of the President, any three NSLS Officers or the majority of NSLS members. Written notice of additional meetings shall be given to all members not less than one week prior to the meeting.

Section 2: Executive Board meetings shall be defined as Business Meetings, and shall be open to all members of the board and Committees.

- Business meetings shall be conducted using parliamentary procedure. A minimum of one business meeting must be held within the first month of each academic term (except summer term).
- Business meetings shall be listed in the schedule of activities. The local chapter may decide on the number of business meetings held during the year, as long as the minimum standards set forth in this Constitution are maintained. All business for the academic year must be concluded by the last general meeting of the year.

Section 3: Success Networking Team meetings shall be open to assigned members of each team.

- Success Networking Team meetings shall be facilitated within each team. Each team must hold a minimum of three Success Networking Team meetings per academic term.
- Success Networking Team meetings should be listed in the schedule of activities

ARTICLE VIII

QUORUM & VOTING

Section 1: Quorum is defined as the number of Officers or members that, when duly assembled, can conduct business. Quorum for any meeting (Executive Board, Committee or General Body) shall be 50% of the current members.

Section 2: Voting may be conducted by current members of the voting body (Executive Board, Committee or General Body) in good standing with the local and national organization. The President will vote only to break a tie. Simple majority shall decide all votes.

ARTICLE IX

ACTIVITIES OF THE LOCAL CHAPTER

- A schedule of activities shall be created and maintained by the local Chapter Officers.
- Schedules shall be distributed to all members at the beginning of each academic term, or upon becoming a member.

ARTICLE X

CHAPTER ADVISOR(S)

- The NSLS must maintain at least one Advisor(s), within the parameters outlined by the host institution, who must be a faculty or staff member employed at the host institution.
- The Advisor(s) shall ensure that the NSLS is operating in a fair and efficient manner and supervise the NSLS activities as outlined by the chapter's host institution.
- The Advisor(s) shall meet with the President a minimum of once a month during the regular academic year. The Advisor(s) should meet with the Executive Board a minimum of once per academic term.
- The Advisor(s) shall attend at least one Orientation and one Induction.
- The Advisor(s) shall be familiar with all NSLS manuals and appendices.
- The Advisor(s) shall serve as a liaison with the host institution's administration, in addition to corresponding with the NSLS Chapter Support Manager as needed.

ARTICLE XI

MAINTAINING NATIONAL MEMBERSHIP

- To remain in good standing with the Chapter Support Manager, the local NSLS chapter must meet all provisions contained within the chapter agreement signed by the Advisor(s).
- Chapters that do not meet these provisions may be deemed inactive and have rights of national membership suspended until resolution is achieved, no longer receiving any benefits or privileges previously held.
- An inactive chapter can become active again upon satisfying all National requirements. The Chapter Leader(s) must work with the National Office to reach active status.

ARTICLE XII

DISSOLUTION STATEMENT

- The local chapter is responsible for any and all debts and credits owed to the host institution should the organization be dissolved for any reason.
- The Chapter Support Manager is not responsible for any local chapter debts or credits should the chapter be dissolved for any reason.
